Investment arguments

Company set to seize rising opportunities in the domestic crop protection market: India's overall pesticide consumption is one of the lowest in the world and has a huge potential to grow. We believe Rallis is well placed to seize this opportunity on the back of its wide distribution network, strong brands, and a robust new product pipeline. According to industry estimates, the unorganized market accounts for $50 \%$ of the industry. Nonetheless, we believe Rallis is in a position to wrest market share as well as charge a premium for its products. A lower base would result in 11.0\% CAGR in the domestic business during FY2017-19E.

Exports remain flat: Although a late entrant, the company has been enhancing its focus in the exports market, which is now turning out to be its main growth driver. Overall exports formed $\sim 31 \%$ of sales in FY2017. In FY2017, the global weakness in the agrochemical industry had put pressure on Rallis' exports business, which resulted in revenue coming in at ₹ 450 cr. Moreover, going forward, the segment will continue to post a 15.0\% CAGR over FY2017-19E.

Seed business to augment the domestic portfolio: After the acquisition of Metahelix seeds business in 2010, the seeds business forms a major part of the domestic business of the company. During FY2017, Rallis' seeds business (under Metahelix) reported a decent growth of $15 \%$ yoy to ₹ 280 cr on the back of increased market share, and despite significant reduction in acreages for some of the key crops such as millet seeds and corn. The company is also strengthening its cotton portfolio and will be launching a new product to take on the market leaders in this crop. The management remains confident of Metahelix achieving 12-14\% margin in a good monsoon year.

Contract manufacturing ramping up slowly: Rallis plans to focus on contract manufacturing for exports and selectively target top players. To facilitate the same, the company has set up a plant at Dahej, which in FY2013 was working at full capacity and contributed significantly to the overall growth of the company. The company has bagged two CRAMS projects on a pilot basis during the year. The management expects to convert these pilot projects into full commercial contracts in FY2017 and contribute to earnings growth from FY2018-2019 onwards.

Outlook and valuation

Over FY2017-19E, we expect the company to post a CAGR of $11.5 \%$ and $21.0 \%$ in net sales and profit respectively. At the current level, the stock is trading at a fair valuation of $22.5 x$ its FY2019E EPS. Hence, we maintain our Neutral view on the stock, on back of the rich valuations.
