For 1QFY2017, Jagran Prakashan (JPL) reported a 9\% yoy growth in its standalone top-line but the growth in PAT was relatively lower mainly due to higher employee and other operating expenditure. On a consolidated basis, the company reported healthy double digit growth numbers on the back of a favorable performance in radio and other businesses. However, circulation revenue growth trailed a bit during the quarter.

Standalone - Ad revenue up $\sim 9 \%$ yoy, Circulation revenue up $\sim 6 \%$ yoy: The company's standalone top-line grew by $9 \%$ yoy to ₹ 473 cr (on back of advertising revenue growth of $\sim 9 \%$ yoy to $\sim ₹ 333 \mathrm{cr}$, primarily driven by improvement in yields; and circulation revenue growth of $6 \%$ yoy to ₹ 100 cr due to increase in cover prices). Further, income from other businesses grew by $\sim 13 \%$ yoy to $\sim ₹ 40 \mathrm{cr}$. On a consolidated basis, the top-line grew by $\sim 17 \%$ yoy on back of strong advertising revenue and other operating income growth.

OPM improves: The standalone operating profit grew by $\sim 6 \%$ yoy to $₹ 130 \mathrm{cr}$ and the OPM contracted by 80 bp yoy to $27.5 \%$, owing to higher employee and other operating expenditure. The net profit grew by $5 \%$ yoy on back of poor operating performance and lower other income.

Outlook and valuation: Considering Dainik Jagran's status as the most read Hindi newspaper in the country and its strong presence in the rapidly growing Hindi markets of Bihar, Haryana, Jharkhand, Punjab, Madhya Pradesh and Uttar Pradesh, we expect JPL to benefit the most from an eventual recovery in the Indian economy. Further, the acquisition of Radio City is also expected to boost the company's profitability, going ahead. Hence, we maintain our Accumulate rating on the stock with a target price of ₹205.

Investment rationale

- Advertising revenue expected to bounce on back of improvement in economy: Considering Dainik Jagran's status as the most read Hindi newspaper and its strong presence in the rapidly growing Hindi markets of Bihar, Haryana, Jharkhand, Punjab, Madhya Pradesh and Uttar Pradesh, we believe JPL will benefit the most from an eventual recovery in the Indian economy.
- Recent acquisitions to fuel growth: The acquisition of the radio business (Radio City) would also boost the company's revenue going ahead. Radio City has $\sim 20$ stations across 7 states in the country and is second only to ENIL in all its operating circles, ie Delhi, Mumbai, Bengaluru, Chennai, Ahmedabad, Hyderabad, Pune and Lucknow. The company covers $\sim 51 \%$ ( $\sim 66 \mathrm{mn}$ people) of the total radio population.
- Falling raw material prices to boost profitability: Raw material prices (newsprint costs) have been declining over the past 5 quarters and are expected to remain stable, going forward. Thus, considering lower news print costs, healthy sales, and higher margins in the radio business, we expect the company to post higher profitability, going ahead.

Outlook and valuation

Considering Dainik Jagran's status as the most read Hindi newspaper in the country and its strong presence in the rapidly growing Hindi markets of Bihar, Haryana, Jharkhand, Punjab, Madhya Pradesh and Uttar Pradesh, we expect JPL to benefit the most from an eventual recovery in the Indian economy. Further, the acquisition of Radio City will also boost the company's profitability, going ahead. Hence, we maintain our Accumulate rating on the stock with a target price of ₹205.

Company Background

Dainik Jagran, with an AIR of $\sim 16.4 \mathrm{mn}$, is the most read newspaper in India published by Jagran Prakashan (JPL). The company enjoys a leadership position in Uttar Pradesh, the largest Hindi market for almost a decade now. The company is present in the rapidly growing Hindi print media markets of Bihar, Delhi, Haryana, Jharkhand, Punjab and Uttar Pradesh. Apart from its commanding position in print media, JPL is also present in the internet, OOH , and event management businesses.
